11. A use variance may only be granted if it is determined that zonings regulations and restrictions cause the property owner unnecessary hardship. New York law provides that: "In order to prove such unnecessary hardship, the property owner shall demonstrate to the Board of Appeals that:

- 1) Under the applicable zoning regulations, the owner is deprived of a reasonable return for each and every permitted use under the zoning regulations for the particular district where the property is located This deprivation must be established by competent financial evidence;
- 2) the alleged hardship relating to the property in question is unique, and does not apply to a substantial portion of the district or neighborhood;
- 3) the requested use variance, if granted ,will not alter the essential character of the neighborhood; and
- 4) the alleged hardship has not been self-created

You must set forth the facts which support your Application request. (Attach additional sheets, schedules, or other information that you want the Board to consider):

12. Under State law, the Board of Appeals must consider the following factors in making a decision on your request for an area variance:

- 1) whether an undesirable change will be produced in the character of the neighborhood or a detriment to nearby properties will be created by the granting of the area variance;
- 2) whether the benefit sought by the applicant can be achieved by some method feasible for the applicant to pursue other than an area variance;
- 3) whether the requested area variance is substantial;
- 4) whether the proposed variance will have an adverse effect or impact on the physical or environmental conditions in the neighborhood or district; and
- 5) whether the alleged difficulty was self-created...

You must set forth the facts which support your Application request. (Attach additional sheets, schedules, or other information that you want the Board to consider:

See attached cover letter.
