11. A use variance may only be granted if it is determined that zonings regulations and restrictions cause the property owner unnecessary hardship. New York law provides that: "In order to prove such unnecessary hardship, the property owner shall demonstrate to the Board of Appeals that:

- 1) Under the applicable zoning regulations, the owner is deprived of a reasonable return for each and every permitted use under the zoning regulations for the particular district where the property is located This deprivation must be established by competent financial evidence;
- 2) the alleged hardship relating to the property in question is unique, and does not apply to a substantial portion of the district or neighborhood;
- 3) the requested use variance, if granted, will not alter the essential character of the neighborhood; and
- 4) the alleged hardship has not been self-created

You must set forth the facts which support your Application request. (Attach additional sheets, schedules, or other information that you want the Board to consider):

New York Zoning Board of Appeals (Effective 2007)

12. Under State law, the Board of Appeals must consider the following factors in making a decision on your request for an area variance:

- 1) whether an undesirable change will be produced in the character of the neighborhood or a detriment to nearby properties will be created by the granting of the area variance;

No undesirable change will be produced in the character of the neighborhood and no detriment to nearby properties will be created by granting the area variance.

- 2) whether the benefit sought by the applicant can be achieved by some method feasible for the applicant to pursue other than an area variance;

The benefit sought by the applicant cannot be achieved by any other method due to the existing location and orientation of the garage.

- 3) whether the requested area variance is substantial;

The requested area variance is not substantial. The Applicant is proposing a 4.5 ' setback where 6 ' is required. Because of the orientation of the garage the driveway is angled. The closest point of the proposed driveway from the s

- 4) whether the proposed variance will have an adverse effect or impact on the physical or environmental conditions in the neighborhood or district; and

The proposed variance will not have an adverse effect or impact on the physical or environmental conditions in the neighborhood or district.

- 5) whether the alleged difficulty was self-created...

The difficulty is self-created.

13. If this Application is not for an area or use variance, provide information that supports your Application. You must refer to the appropriate sections of the Village Code and to other legal requirements necessary for the board to consider your application

(Article X Special Permit) § 342-71 Action on referral.

A. That the location and size of the use, the nature and intensity of the operations and traffic involved in or conducted in connection with it, the size of the site in relation to it and the location of the site with respect to the type, arrangement and capacity of streets giving access to it and the hours of operation are such that the proposed use will be in harmony with the appropriate and orderly development of the district in which it is located.

B. That the location, nature and height of buildings, walls and fences and the nature and extent of the landscaping and screening on the site, as existing or proposed, are such that the use will not hinder or discourage the appropriate development and use of adjacent land and buildings.

C. That operations in connection with the proposed use will not be objectionable by reason of noise, fumes, smoke, dust, vibration, glare, intensity or flashing of lights.
